

EASHAL ❤️

FRIDAY
30th MAY, 2025

Dear,

I am sorry for hurting you but I promise you that it's not like that what you think of me, It's not that I go searching for girls reel or that kind of content. To be honest Most of the time, I use insta to watch funny reels of cats, nature, food, whiskey, cars or travel reels and that's what I enjoy, Insta is not porn site for me. I won't lie I do go through such reels when my friends share them and because of which my feed was like that but trust me it's not the same every time and you know it too, I really love you and it hurts me that every day something keeps coming in between us. I was silent and upset today because everything was so good yesterday, we were happy and then this came out of nowhere.

I'm really sorry, I love you and I just want us to be okay :)

Thank you for reading.

Yours Truly (Bhi Likhdu?)

Verma :)
